HYMN IN PROCESSION

The Head Choristers sing the first verse. Then All join in singing the hymn.

1 Once in roy - al Da - vid's ci - ty stood a low - ly cat - tle shed,
2 He came down to earth from hea - ven, who is God and Lord of all,
3 For he is our child - hood's pat - tern, day by day like us he grew;
4 And our eyes at last shall see him, through his own re - deem - ing love;
5 Not in that poor low - ly sta - ble, with the ox - en stand - ing round, where a mo - ther laid her ba - by in a man - ger for his bed:

and his shel - ter was a sta - ble, and his cra - dle was a stall;
he was lit - tle, weak and help - less, tears and smiles like us he knew.
for that Child so dear and gen - tle is our Lord in heaven a - bove;
we shall see him; but in hea - ven, where his saints his throne sur - round:

Ma - ry was that mo - ther mild, Je - sus Christ her lit - tle child.
with the poor, the mean, the low - ly, lived on earth our sav - ior ho - ly.
and he feel - eth for our sad - ness, and he shar - eth in our glad - ness.
and he leads his chil - dren on to the place where he is gone.
Christ, re - vealed to faith - ful eye, set at God's right hand on high.

The Dean says

THE BIDDING PRAYER

Then All join in saying

THE LORD'S PRAYER

OUR Father, who art in heaven,
 Hallowed be thy Name, Thy kingdom come,
 Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread,
 And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.
 And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom,
 and the power, and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

The Dean says

THE Almighty God bless us with his grace, Christ give us the joys of everlasting life, and unto the fellowship of the citizens above may the King of Angels bring us all.

People Amen.

The People are seated.

INVITATORY CAROL

Tomorrow shall be my dancing day John Rutter (b. 1945)

TOMORROW shall be my dancing day:
 I would my true love did so chance
 To see the legend of my play,
 To call my true love to my dance.
 Sing O my love, O my love,
 My love, my love;
 This have I done for my true love.
 Then was I born of a virgin pure,
 Of her I took fleshly substance;
 Thus was I knit to man's nature,
 To call my true love to my dance.
 In a manger laid and wrapped I was,
 So very poor, this was my chance,
 Betwixt an ox and a silly poor ass,
 To call my true love to my dance.

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF GENESIS

Read by Ms. Annabelle Sahl, Head Chorister.

THEY heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden at the time of the evening breeze, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden. But the Lord God called to the man, and said to him, 'Where are you?' He said, 'I heard the sound of you in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself.' He said, 'Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?' The man said, 'The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit from the tree, and I ate.' Then the Lord God said to the woman, 'What is this that you have done?' The woman said, 'The serpent tricked me, and I ate.'

The Lord God said to the serpent,
 'Because you have done this,
 cursed are you among all animals and among all wild creatures;
 upon your belly you shall go,
 and dust you shall eat
 all the days of your life.

I will put enmity between you and the woman,
 and between your offspring and hers;
 he will strike your head,
 and you will strike his heel.' (3:8-15)

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF GENESIS

Read in Spanish by Ms. Claudia Vela, Chorister parent.

THE angel of the Lord called to Abraham a second time from heaven, and said, 'By myself I have sworn, says the Lord: Because you have done this, and have not withheld your son, your only son, I will indeed bless you, and I will make your offspring as numerous as the stars of heaven and as the sand that is on the seashore. And your offspring shall possess the gate of their enemies, and by your offspring shall all the nations of the earth gain blessing for themselves, because you have obeyed my voice.' (22:15-18)

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET ISAIAH

Read by Kristine Pottinger, Director, Public Education and Visitor Services.

THE people who walked in darkness have seen a great light;
those who lived in a land of deep darkness—
on them light has shined.
For a child has been born for us,
a son given to us;
authority rests upon his shoulders;
and he is named
Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom.
He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onwards and for evermore.
The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this. (9:2, 6–7)

CAROL

Jesus Christ the Apple Tree Elizabeth Poston (1905–1987)

THE tree of life my soul hath seen,
Laden with fruit and always green:
The trees of nature fruitless be Compared with Christ the apple tree.

His beauty doth all things excel:
By faith I know, but ne'er can tell,
The glory which I now can see
In Jesus Christ the apple tree.

For happiness I long have sought,
And pleasure dearly I have bought:
I missed of all, but now I see
'Tis found in Christ the apple tree.

I'm weary with my former toil,
Here I will sit and rest a-while:
Under the shadow I will be
Of Jesus Christ the apple tree.

This fruit doth make my soul to thrive,
It keeps my dying faith alive;
Which makes my soul in haste to be
With Jesus Christ the apple tree.

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET MICAH Read in French by Sister Lysanne Guilbault, CN.

THEN you, O Bethlehem of Ephrathah, who are one of the little clans of Judah,
from you shall come forth for me
one who is to rule in Israel, whose origin is from of old,
from ancient days.
Therefore he shall give them up until the time when she who is in labor has brought forth;
then the rest of his kindred shall return to the people of Israel.
And he shall stand and feed his flock
in the strength of the Lord, in the majesty of the name of the Lord his God.
And they shall live secure, for now he shall be great to the ends of the earth. (5:2-4)

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL
ACCORDING TO LUKE

Read by Sister Hannah Spiers, CN.

IN the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary. And he came to her and said, 'Greetings, favored one! The Lord is with you.' But she was much perplexed by his words and pondered what sort of greeting this might be. The angel said to her, 'Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. And now, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you will name him Jesus. He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his ancestor David. He will reign over the house of Jacob for ever, and of his kingdom there will be no end.'

Mary said to the angel, 'How can this be, since I am a virgin?' The angel said to her, 'The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born will be holy; he will be called Son of God. Then Mary said, 'Here am I, the servant of the Lord; let it be with me according to your word.' Then the angel departed from her. (1:26–35, 38)

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL
ACCORDING TO MATTHEW

Read in Italian by The Reverend Etienne Vetö, CN.

NOW the birth of Jesus the Messiah took place in this way. When his mother Mary had been engaged to Joseph, but before they lived together, she was found to be with child from the Holy Spirit. Her husband Joseph, being a righteous man and unwilling to expose her to public disgrace, planned to dismiss her quietly. But just when he had resolved to do this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, 'Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife, for the child conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. She will bear a son, and you are to name him Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins.' All this took place to fulfil what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet:

'Look, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall name him Emmanuel',
which means, 'God is with us.' (1:18–23)

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL
ACCORDING TO LUKE

Read by The Reverend Canon Steven Lee.

IN that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, ‘Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.’ And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying,

‘Glory to God in the highest heaven,
and on earth peace
among those whom he favors!’

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, ‘Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us.’ So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. (2:8–16)

This Little Babe Benjamin Britten (1913–1976) from Ceremony of Carols

THIS little babe so few days old
Is come to rifle Satan’s fold.
All hell doth at his presence quake,
Though he himself for cold do shake.
For in this weak unarmèd wise
The gates of hell he will surprise.

With tears he fights and wins the field,
His naked breast stands for a shield.
His battering shot are babish cries,
His arrows looks of weeping eyes.
His martial ensigns Cold and Need,
And feeble flesh his warrior’s steed.

His camp is pitchèd in a stall,
His bulwark but a broken wall.
The crib his trench, haystalks his stakes;
Of shepherds he his muster makes;
And thus, as sure his foe to wound,
The angels’ trumps alarum sound.

My soul, with Christ join thou in fight;
Stick to the tents that he hath pight.
Within his crib is surest ward;
This little Babe will be thy guard.
If thou wilt foil thy foes with joy,
Then flit not from this heavenly Boy!

Robert Southwell (1561–1595)

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL
ACCORDING TO MATTHEW

Read in Japanese by Mariko Endo, Cathedral Church of St. John the Divine.

IN the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, asking, ‘Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage.’ When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him; and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. They told him, ‘In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet:

“And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah,
are by no means least among the rulers of Judah;
for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel.”

Then Herod secretly called for the wise men and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, ‘Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage.’ When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was. When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure-chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

THE BEGINNING OF THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN

Read by The Very Reverend Patrick Malloy, Dean.

IN the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it.

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

He came as a witness to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light. The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world.

He was in the world, and the world came into being through him; yet the world did not know him. He came to what was his own, and his own people did not accept him. But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God, who were born, not of blood or of the will of the flesh or of the will of man, but of God.

And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth. (1:1-14)

Ding dong merrily on high arr. David Wilcocks (1919-2015)

DING dong! Merrily on high,
In heav'n the bells are ringing:
Ding dong! Verily the sky
Is riv'n with angel singing,
Gloria, Hosanna in excelsis!

E'en so here below, below,
Let steeple bells be swungen,
And "Io, io, io!"
By priest and people sungen.
Gloria, Hosanna in excelsis!

Pray you, dutifully prime
Your matin chime, ye ringers;
May you beautifully rime
Your evetime song, ye singers.
Gloria, Hosanna in excelsis!

THE GREETING

The Very Reverend Patrick Malloy
Dean, Cathedral Church of St. John the Divine

ANTHEM DURING THE OFFERING

This Christmastide (Jessye's Carol) Donald Fraser (b. 1947)

In loving memory of James Litton (1934–2022)

GREEN and silver, red and gold,
 And a story born of old,
 Truth and love and hope abide,
 This Christmastide.

Holly, ivy, mistletoe
 And the gently falling snow,
 Truth and love and hope abide,
 This Christmastide.

From a simple ox's stall
 Came the greatest gift of all,
 Truth and love and hope abide,
 This Christmastide.

Children sing of hope and joy
 At the birth of one small boy,
 Truth and love and hope abide,
 This Christmastide.

Let the bells ring loud and clear,
 Ring out now, for all to hear,
 Truth and love and hope abide,
 This Christmastide.

Trumpets sound and voices raise
 In an endless stream of praise,
 Truth and love and hope abide,
 This Christmastide.

Green and silver, red and gold
 And a story born of old,
 Peace and love and hope abide,
 This Christmastide.

Jane McCulloch

During the anthem, an offering will be taken to support the liturgical, cultural and outreach programs of the Cathedral.

Your offering makes possible the religious and cultural mission of the Cathedral, including service to people who are financially and socially disadvantaged, children, and the hundreds of thousands who come here day-by-day seeking to be touched by the Divine. The People may place their offerings in the basket as it is passed or use the QR code.

Thank you for your generosity.
