(38:1-11)

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

PSALM 107:1-3, 23-32

Sung by the Choir.

Confitemini Domino

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good,
and his mercy endures for ever.
Let all those whom the Lord has redeemed proclaim that he redeemed them from the hand of the foe.
He gathered them out of the lands;
from the east and from the west,
from the north and from the south.
Some went down to the sea in ships and plied their trade in deep waters;
They beheld the works of the Lord and his wonders in the deep.
Then he spoke, and a stormy wind arose,
which tossed high the waves of the sea.
They mounted up to the heavens and fell back to the depths;
their hearts melted because of their peril.

They reeled and staggered like drunkards and were at their wits' end.
Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble,
and he delivered them from their distress.
He stilled the storm to a whisper and quieted the waves of the sea.
Then were they glad because of the calm, and he brought them to the harbor they were bound for.
Let them give thanks to the Lord for his mercy
and the wonders he does for his children.
Let them exalt him in the congregation of the people and praise him in the council of the elders.

Chant: Andrew Carter (b. 1939)

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say

Celebrant and People

OUR Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy Name,
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. Silence is kept. Then is sung

Plainsong; adapt. Mason
Martens (1933-1991)

The Celebrant invites the People to Holy Communion. As the ministers receive the Sacrament, the People come forward.

THE COMMUNION

The Holy Communion is distributed under the forms of both Bread and Wine. In the interest of public health, the Cathedral does not practice intinction, that is, the dipping of the Bread into the Wine. It is the faith of the Church that Jesus gives himself in the Sacrament whether it is received in only one kind or both. Gluten-free Wafers are available; please make your need known to the minister.

COMMUNION ANTHEM

Sung by the Choir.

Prope est Dominus

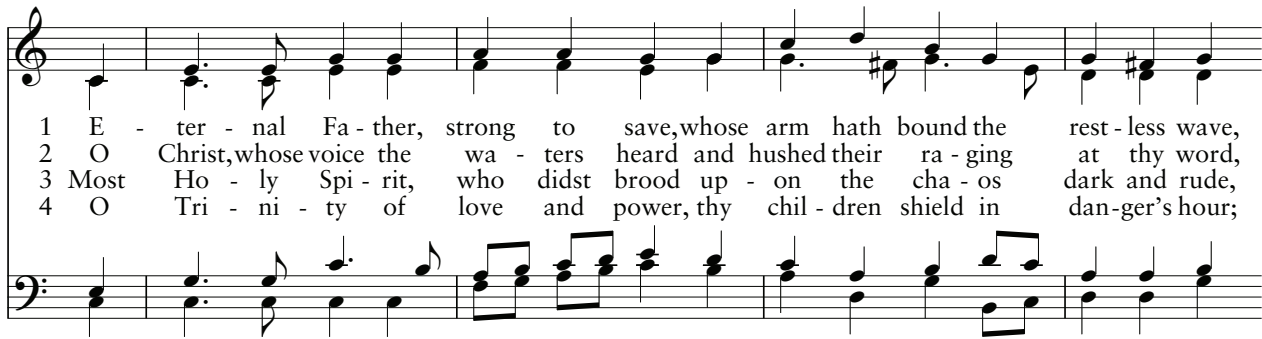

Jacob Regnart (1544-1599)

*The Lord is near to all who call on him, in truth.
May my mouth speak the praises of the Lord,
and may all flesh bless him,
bless his holy Name.
Come, O Lord, and do not delay;
pardon the sins of your people Israel.*

A time of silence is observed after the Holy Communion, then the hymn is sung by all, standing as able.
